The Province of British Columbia appoints Cynthia Dick to Port Alberni Port Authority Board of Directors

PORT ALBERNI – The Port Alberni Port Authority (PAPA) is pleased to announce the appointment of Cynthia Dick to its Board of Directors by the Province of British Columbia. This appointment of a three-year term took effect October 24, 2018.

Ms. Dick is the Chief Councillor of the Tseshaht First Nation since her appointment to that role in 2016. She brings her vision to continue the work of creating a brighter future for the community and future generations. Ms. Dick believes that through more community engagement she will be able to work towards common goals and visions on behalf of Tseshaht people. As the proud mother of a young daughter she holds value in creating a better place for future generations as her highest motivation.

In addition to her cultural and professional perspectives, Ms. Dick's formal education includes a degree in Sociology and Psychology and Certificate in Management Skills for Supervisors from Vancouver Island University which contributes a unique perspective to board discussions.

The Port Alberni Port Authority values its relationships with First Nations. The addition of Ms. Dick is important for the Port to continue to foster positive relationships among our First Nations communities and partners. The Port Authority is very pleased to have Ms. Dick on our board of directors to enhance diversity in our cultural, social and economic considerations.

We are in an exciting time of opportunity and growth for the Port Authority. We look forward to the contributions of Ms. Dick to help the Port fulfill its mandate and achieve its goals on behalf of all members of the community we serve.
