ANNUAL MOORAGE APPLICATION

ANNUAL MOORAGE WAITLIST POLICY

- Seasonal Moorage Waitlist requires a $25 non-refundable deposit and the Seasonal Moorage Application must be submitted to register for the Waitlist
- Current seasonal guests on “Guests Requesting Change in Moorage or Campsite” lists will be given priority before allocating new guests requesting seasonal moorage and/or camping.
- Guests requesting both Seasonal Camping and Seasonal Moorage will be given priority over guests requesting moorage only
- Berths are assigned to vessels based on length, which includes swim grids, motors, pulpits etc. requests for changes are taken into consideration when assigning however are at the discretion of the Marina Coordinator or the Manager Marina Services. Requests are not guaranteed.
- Waitlist members with boats shorter than the available slip may accept the moorage opportunity but must pay the full rate for the length of that berth. However, the member may decline this opportunity in order to continue waiting for an appropriate sized berth without removing their place from the list
- Waitlist members are responsible to ensure Marina Staff are notified of any changes to contact information or boat or RV length. Failure to do so will result in forfeiture of the member’s place on the Waitlist
- Waitlist members will have 4 days to respond to the opportunity upon notification by Port Authority staff. Failure to do so will cause the member to be removed from the Waitlist.
- If a Waitlist member declines an appropriate berth or campsite, they will be removed from the Waitlist.
- Once a Waitlist member is removed from the Waitlist the member must reapply if interested in future moorage.
- As the Waitlists are updated, the original will be saved for a minimum of 3 years.
